

Oaks Pinnacle

The Pinnacle

1. ??????? 6a+?

Start sitting just right of the arête with left hand on a layaway and right on an low undercut. Climb up the wall not using the arête for hands or feet.

2. Black Back Sit Start 5

From a sit start climb the right side of the arête finishing up the nice curving flake at the top. Starting standing is 4

3. Social Edge 6c+

Climb the left side of the arête from a sit start with left on the rail and right hand on the arête. From a standing start it's Right Arête 2.

4. Central Dilemma 7b

Sit start with both hands low on the left hand side of the rail and eliminating the low ledge shelf. Make a series of difficult moves to get stood on the face and up the centre of the wall with difficulty. Standing start it's Central Route 4.

5. Left Arête Sit Start? 7a

Start sat with the left hand on the arête and right on a flake and eliminating the low ledge shelf. Make a series of tricky lock off to get established and then climb up the right side of the left arête. Starting from standing is Left Arête 4

6. Edge of Desire 7a+

From a sit start with the right hand on the arête and left on a small ripple and eliminating the low side wall and shelf. Make a tricky pull on and slap up to the good flakes. Finish up the left hand side of the arête.

7. Left Face Sit Start 6a?

Sit start with both hands in the low break and climb up and out onto the face and right side of the arête. Finish by climbing directly after the break or rocking onto the large ledge. Starting from standing and climbing directly is Left Face 4.

8. 5

From a sitting start on the ledge climb up the overhanging left side of the arête to mantle onto the large ledge above.

About 8m's to the left is a small hidden cave and flat rock, that both seems to hold more problems than they clearly should.

9. Clint's Cave 6b

Sit start inside and using a break and a foot jam, reach out and then top out on slopers. A poor extension can be done adding a couple of moves, by starting at the left hand side of the starting break and traversing in; Clints Cave Extension 6b+

10. Clint's Dirty Lip 7a

Start sat as for clint's cave, as you come out to the lip traverse left along the lip and then move up and left towards a left leaning fault line with a good sidepull, top out to the left of and not using the over hanging rock. The extension start is no more difficult.

11. Clint's Dirty Direct 7a+

Start sitting at the left hand Side of the low break, climb directly out via an undercut side pull flake and heel toe jam, to finish as for Clint's Dirty Lip.

12. Flat Rock Right Hand 4+

Sit start on the block underneath reach up and traverse the lip and finish mantling the nose.

13. Flat Rock 6a+

Start sat on the block and climb the projecting overhanging roof via good holds to mantle-shelf on to its flat summit. Starting matched on the low good double edge and climbing the roof, eliminating the low block for feet is Flat Feet 6b.

14. Flat Feet Super Direct 6c+?

An eliminate starting matched on the low double edge. Eliminating the low block for feet and vague left arête: Lock over to the slightly sloping edge with the left and then pop to the lip of the boulder with the right. Mantle to finish.

15. The Leicestershire Sword (Flat Rock Left Hand) 6c+/7a

At the left hand side of the large roof start sitting on top of the large boulder with the left on a slopy crimp and right hand on the undercut sidepull. Use your heel to gain the crimps and good holds on the underside of the overhang. Reach the lip and mantle to Finish.

16. The Scabbard (Flat Rock Left Hand Variation) 6b+

Start sat as for Flat Rock Left Hand but escape early to the lip and mantle out.

Isolated Pinnacle.

Further on along the rocky ridge line towards the lodge and hidden behind some trees is a small pinnacle of rock. No photo topo and the lines need checking.

Isolated Pinnacle Right Face 5

Start sitting and climb up the more slabby right side of the pinnacle

Isolated Pinnacle Left Face 5

From a sit start climb up the left side of the pinnacle.

Johnny's Variation 5+

Start sitting from a similar position and climb up onto a shelf eliminating the right arête.

Johnny's Problem 5+

Start sat up on the shelf and climb the wall just left of the back arête.
